

#MondayMenu: 13-19 November 2017

UN Namibia: What's happening at UN Namibia this week? Check out the #MondayMenu for 13-19 November 2017.

The Exclusive Excellency Kaza Tour will be finishing this week (10-15 November). The purpose of this tour, involving UNDP, Namibia, Botswana, Zambia, Zimbabwe and Turkey, plus other partners such as the Ministry of International Relations and Cooperation (MIRCO) and the Namibia Wildlife Resorts (NWR), is to promote a new regional tourism route that promotes sustainable development across four countries in southern Africa.

UN Namibia is hosting the UN Vision 2030 and Strategic Prioritization Retreat for the Namibia UNPAF 2019-2023 from 13-15 November. At the retreat, UN Namibia will undertake a visioning and strategic prioritization exercise, jointly with the Government of the Republic of Namibia (GRN), and other key stakeholders including, civil society organizations and the private Sector among others.

UNESCO Windhoek in partnership with UNIC Windhoek will visit several schools (both government and private) from 13-16 November to spread the message of tolerance in commemoration of the International Day of Tolerance on 16 November. The educational outreach is in support of the campaign launched by the UN to promote tolerance, respect and dignity for all across the world.

FAO Namibia will distribute pheromone traps for Fall Armyworms, perform a training demonstration and train technicians from 13-17 November in the Omaheke Region.

FAO Namibia will be hosting a rice cultivation techniques training workshop of South-South Cooperation in Kalimbeza, Katima from 14 -15 November.

The Ministry of Education, Arts and Culture (MoEAC) and the UN World Food Programme (WFP) are holding a national stakeholder consultative workshop on 16 November 2017. The workshop will discuss a draft public private partnership (PPP) strategy for the Namibian School Feeding Programme. The development of this strategy follows widespread stakeholder consultations undertaken by WFP, the Global Child Nutrition Foundation (GCNF) and the MoEAC that took place in April and August 2017.

A national stakeholders' meeting on the HIV Response Sustainability Framework and the Sustainability Index Dashboard (SID) 3.0 will take place from 16-17 November.

